Offers of Course placement will be based on an assessment by the School or its agent of the extent to which the proficiencies and aspirations of the student are matched by the educational opportunities offered by the School. Should your application be successful, you will receive a letter of offer ("offer of a place"). However, you will need to pay the year's fees before a visa will be granted. If you accept the offer of a place then this application for tuition and the attached tuition agreement shall be the terms and conditions of agreement by which tuition shall be provided to the student. The terms must be signed by a parent or guardian if the student is 18 years or under. The parent or guardian shall be bound by these terms and conditions.

If the student is aged 19 years or over on 1 January of the year of tuition, then the duties, obligations and authorization of the parents of the student set out in these terms and conditions shall attach to the student, and all references to "Parents" shall be read accordingly.
